

Rob Malpass State Operations Manager

“There are people I know who have been with SKILLED for 20 years and I don’t regard them as employees – they have become friends.”

State Operations Manager for SKILLED in Western Australia, Rob Malpass, has been with SKILLED for 23 years after starting out with the company as a Boilermaker/Welder in 1981.

“It’s the people at SKILLED who make the difference,” says Rob. “And I am referring to both our branch staff and our field employees.”

“I very strongly believe that we treat our people better than any other staffing services company,” says Rob.

“SKILLED really strives to make all the workers feel like part of the SKILLED family. No matter how new they are, they are all treated with respect and warmly welcomed.”

“SKILLED is a very ethical employer.”

During his 23 years, Rob has been on assignments, which included trips to Jakarta, New Zealand and Melbourne. For a period of four years he was the Branch Manager at Kalgoorlie in Western Australia.
